

Wording for Gift in Will

By leaving a gift in your will, you are making an impact on care, research and education at Baycrest and contributing to our vision of a world where every older adult enjoys a life of purpose, inspiration and fulfilment.

The following language can be used in your will, but you should choose language in consultation with your lawyer or professional advisor:

“I bequeath to The Baycrest Centre Foundation (also known as the Baycrest Foundation), located at 3560 Bathurst Street in Toronto, Ontario M6A 2E1 (Charitable Registration Number 11921 5242 RR00001) _____.
(Insert one of the options below).”

- For a specific amount:

“the sum of $_____, for its own use absolutely.”

- For a percentage:

“a _____% of my estate, for its own use absolutely.”

- For a residual amount (consists of whatever remains after gifts to loved ones and expenses have been paid):

“the residue of my estate, for its own use absolutely.”

- For a specific area (patient care, research or education):

“It is my preference that this gift supports _____.”

Note:

When designating to a specific area, it is recommended that you speak with the Planned Giving staff about how your gift will be used.

For more information, please contact
Becki Willoughby, Planned Giving Director at 416-785-2500 ext. 3895
or bwilloughby@baycrest.org

This is general information only and is intended for reference purposes. This material does not constitute nor substitute legal, accounting or other professional advice. You should consult with your professional advisor to make decisions that suit your unique circumstances and charitable goals.

